Did We Dance: The Sinking of the Mendi

Join us for a preview of the latest Baxter production, followed by a glass of wine and an informal talk by the producer, Maurice Podbrey.

This is a vibrant and energetic, sometimes humorous, retelling of the story of a boat called the Mendi, with English dialogue and Xhosa songs.

This little-known snippet of history had such a profound impact on the rural people of the Eastern Cape that it has become imbedded in their folklore to the extent that every Xhosa schoolchild learns a poem about the Mendi.
